Showing Love Right Here In Our Neighborhood

Want to live out our mission to love our neighbors in Indianapolis, but don't know where to start? Since the fall of 2015, Midtowners have served at IPS #43 as weekly tutors and mentors, classroom assistants, field trip chaperones, volunteers at school and community events, and providers of financial and practical resources for the staff and students. In practical and creative ways, we serve as faithful stewards of God's love and care for our neighbors in the School 43 community. We're currently looking for volunteers to get involved as weekly tutors/mentors and periodic helpers. Please contact Clair White at clairw@cground.org for more information!

Grace/Truth Training + Equipping

Mondays in October • 6:30 - 8:00pm

Perhaps one of the most critical conversations of our time is regarding the church and the LGBT community. There are so many voices shouting from both sides of "the" argument that many of us are missing the most important aspect of the argument: The people we're arguing about.

Join us for a Training & Equipping class on radical welcome, with a focus on welcoming those in the LGBT community.

Care for Creation Prayer Event

September 6 • 7pm

Join CG Midtown and several nearby churches for a prayer event on caring for creation led by our neighbors at St. Thomas Aquinas. This year's event will focus on water. We hope we'll see you there!

Young Adults & Singles

Sunday, September 9 • 5pm

Gather with your fellow Midtown young adults and singles for a screening of the film The Case for Christ. No registration necessary!

Ruth: A Women's Study

Thursdays Sept. 27 - Oct. 25

6:30 - 8pm

In the story of Ruth we will learn about loyalty, faithfulness, and redemption. Led by Liz Munson.
